What are Mudras?

According to the Vedic culture of ancient India, our entire world is made of 'the five elements' called as The Panch-Maha-Bhuta's. The five elements being Earth, Water, Fire, Wind and Space/Vacuum. They are also called the earth element, water element, fire element, wind element and space element.

These five elements constitute the human body – the nutrients from the soil (earth) are absorbed by the plants which we consume (thus we survive on the earth element), the blood flowing through own veins represents the water element, the body heat represents the fire element, the oxygen we inhale and the carbon dioxide we exhale represents the wind element and the sinuses we have in our nose and skull represent the space element.

As long as these five elements in our body are balanced and maintain appropriate levels we remain healthy. An imbalance of these elements in the human body leads to a deteriorated health and diseases.

Now understand this, the command and control center of all these five elements lies in our fingers. So literally, our health lies at our fingertips.

The Mudra healing method that I am going to teach you depends on our fingers.

To understand this, we should first know the finger-element relationship:

Thumb – Fire element.

Index finger – Wind element.

Middle finger – Space/Vacuum element.

Third finger – Earth element.

Small finger – Water element.

This image will give you a better understanding of the concept:

When the fingers are brought together in a specific pattern and are touched to each other, or slightly pressed against each other, the formation is called as a 'Mudra'.

When the five fingers are touched and pressed in a peculiar way to form a Mudra, it affects the levels of the five elements in our body, thus balancing those elements and inducing good health.

P.S. The Mudra Healing Methods aren't just theory or wordplay; these are healing methods from the ancient Indian Vedic culture, proven and tested over ages.

Attention!!

Read this before you read any further

For the better understanding of the reader, detail images have been provided for every mudra along with the method to perform it.

Most of the Mudras given in this book are to be performed using both your hands, but the Mudras whose images show only one hand performing the Mudra, are to be performed simultaneously on both your hands for the Mudras to have the maximum effect.

How to Use These Mudras?

All the Mudras mentioned in this book contribute towards a peaceful mind and enriching our spiritual lives and prowess.

The Mudras in this book when performed regularly induce a special sense of peace and serenity in the practitioner. These Mudras must be performed at a quiet place, sitting alone, preferably during meditation for maximum effect.

If you are not able to meditate while performing these Mudras, at least try and concentrate on your breathing and visualize a Healing Life Energy entering your body through your breath while you are performing these Mudras.

Also, understand that it is NOT a hard and fast rule that you should perform all these 21 Mudras back to back in one session.

Take your time, and perform these Mudras at your own pace and convenience.

What I would suggest is, to perform these Mudras in a set of 7, daily, thus you would have performed all the essential 21 Mudras in a span of 3 days, and repeating the process continually. It will take only 35 minutes each day (5 minutes for each Mudra) and 35 peaceful minutes for Spiritual Healing & Awakening isn't a tall task.

So, please don't come up with any excuses to avoid them, Mudras are as Easy and Effortless as Spiritual Healing can get.

Mudra #1

Dharmachakramudra / Mudra of Wheel of Dharma

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Join the tips of Thumb and Index fingers on both the hands.

With the hands in front of your chest (Heart) touch the tip of the Middle finger of the left hand to the tips of the Thumb and Index finger of the right hand.

Your right palm should face forward while your left palm should face your body.

Duration:

This Mudra should be performed for at least 5 minutes and can be performed for 45 minutes at a stretch.

This Mudra should be performed twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening for best results.

Mudra #2

Mushtikamudra / Mudra of Fist II

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Raise your palms to chest height facing you.

Now, try to touch the heel of your palms (base of the palm) with the tips of all the fingers with your Thumbs extended upwards.

Now make the palms face each other and then join them together with the thumbs touching each other sideways. (Refer the image)

After forming the Mudra, hold it against your chest.

Relax your shoulders, neck and throat.

Duration:

This Mudra should be performed for at least 5 minutes and can be performed for 25 minutes at a stretch.

This Mudra should be performed twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening for best results.

Mudra #3

Trishulamudra / Mudra of Trident

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Raise your palms to chest height with your palms facing away from you.

Place the pad of the Thumb on the nail of the Little finger and press slightly.

Keep the other three fingers extended upwards and outstretched, as shown in the image.

Duration:

This Mudra should be performed for at least 5 minutes and can be performed for 15 minutes at a stretch.

This Mudra should be performed twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening for best results.

Mudra #4

VyapakAnjalimudra / Mudra of Offering

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Now, with your palms facing upwards, curve the hands slightly, like forming a bowl and join the outer edges of your Little fingers. (Refer the image)

Once formed, hold this Mudra in front of your heart like you are making an offering.

Duration:

This Mudra should be performed for at least 5 minutes and can be performed for 45 minutes at a stretch.

This Mudra should be performed twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening for best results.

Mudra #5

Abhayamudra / Mudra of the Fearless

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Raise your right hand in front of your right shoulder, palms facing forward and your fingers extending upwards.

Keep your shoulder relaxed and your hand still.

Place your left hand on your left thigh, palm facing down.

Duration:

This Mudra should be performed for at least 5 minutes and can be performed for 40 minutes at a stretch.

This Mudra should be performed twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening for best results.

Mudra #6

Aadnya Chakramudra / Mudra of Third Eye Chakra

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Raise your left hand to chest height with your palm facing away from you.

Form a fist with your left hand, but the Index finger should be sticking up and extended.

Grasp the extended left Index finger with your right hand, and then using your right Thumb, press slightly on the outer corner of the nail of the left Index finger.

Duration:

Once the Mudra is formed, place the Mudra in your lap for a couple of minutes, then raise the Mudra in front of your Aadnya Chakra i.e. in front of the space between our eyebrows and concentrate at that point.

Hold the Mudra there for a couple of minutes and then place it back in your lap for a couple of minutes more.

Mudra #7

Dhyaanamudra / Mudra of Meditation

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Place your left hand in your lap with the palm facing upwards.

Rest the back of the right hand into the left palm. (Refer image)

Now, touch the tips of both the Thumbs together and press slightly.

Duration:

No specific duration, this Mudra can be performed for as long as you like or the entire time you are meditating.

Mudra #8

Nirvaanamudra / Mudra of Liberation

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Cross your hands at your wrists in front of your face, with your left hand crossing over the right hand.

Now, fold/curl down the Little, Ring and Middle fingers of both the hands.

Now, touch the tips of both the Index fingers together, while keeping your Thumbs parallel to each other and touching.

Then, gently bow down your head and let the tip of the index fingers touch the Third-Eye point. (The Third-Eye point is located half a centimeter above the midpoint between the eyebrows.)

Hold for 1 to 2 minutes.

While performing this Mudra, visualize your third eye opening and wherever you see, there is peace and calmness.

Duration:

This is a very intense Mudra, it should be performed only for 3 to 5 minutes at a stretch.

This Mudra should be performed twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening for best results.

*note: Make it a ritual to perform this Mudra in the morning for best results.

Mudra #9

Dwitiiya Uttarbodhimudra / Mudra of Supreme Awakening II

Method:

This Mudra is to be performed in a seated position.

Be seated comfortably in an upright posture and concentrate on your breathing to relax.

Clasp your hands together, and interlace the fingers of both the hands together.

Now join the tips of the Index finger as shown in the image and extend the Index fingers as upwards as possible,

Then cross-over the left Thumb on the right Thumb.

(Refer the image)

Duration:

This Mudra should be performed for at least 5 minutes and can be performed for 40 minutes at a stretch.
